OPINION AND ORDER

On November 21, 2008, Solarity Communications LLC (Solarity) filed an application, under the Michigan Telecommunications Act (MTA), MCL 484.2101 et seq., for a license to provide basic local exchange service throughout Michigan in the zones and exchanges served by Michigan incumbent local exchange carriers. It also requested a temporary license.

MCL 484.2301(2) states: "Pending a determination of an application for a license, the commission without notice and hearing may issue a temporary license for a period not to exceed 1 year." Solarity states that it seeks a temporary license to allow it to begin the prompt negotiation of interconnection agreements.

After a review of the application and testimony, the Commission finds that approval of the application is in the public interest.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

A. Solarity Communications LLC is granted a temporary license to provide basic local exchange service throughout Michigan in the zones and exchanges served by Michigan incumbent local exchange carriers. The temporary license shall expire upon issuance of the final order granting or denying its application for a permanent license.

B. Solarity Communications LLC shall provide basic local exchange service under the temporary license in accordance with the regulatory requirements specified in the Michigan Telecommunications Act, MCL 484.2101 et seq., including the number portability provisions of MCL 484.2358, the anti-slamming procedures adopted in Case No. U-11900, and the number reclamation process adopted in Case No. U-12703.

C. Before commencing basic local exchange service under the temporary license, Solarity Communications LLC shall submit its tariff reflecting the services that it will offer and identifying the exchanges in which it will offer service.

The Commission reserves jurisdiction and may issue further orders as necessary.

Any party desiring to appeal this order must do so by the filing of a claim of appeal in the Michigan Court of Appeals within 30 days of the issuance of this order, under MCL 484.2203(12).
